Camp	Dates	Ages	Cost/*Deposit
"Campin' Out", with Lyle, Lyle, Crocodile Brother & Sister Week: Explore the antics of personable Lyle as he connives to camp out with the kids...siblings unite to rough it alongside him as they discover the worlds of art appeal and crazy keyboard fun as their imaginations run wild...a scavenger-hunt-camp for the eyes and ears! (How many elements of art can they begin to tame this week? Hmm...) All of the other camps build on the elements presented in this 3-day campout!	June 2-4	3-8	$55/25
"Cassatt-Crazies: Mommy Gets a Makeover" Olivia (of pig-book fame) is on the prowl, and mommy needs a little sparkle and shine added to her look--nothing a little lipstick (& glitter) won't fix. Join Olivia in all of her glory as she attempts a Cassatt-like portrait of Mommy, and experience the fun of learning to retouch photos, to scrapbook, and paint portraits. (A real child-pleaser: everyone loves Olivia!) Mommy Makeovers on Friday, by the way.	June 7-11	3-8	$85/30
"Revenge of the Wild Things Camp", from Where the Wild Things Are Experience Paint Wars and take home the spoils of war from the land of the wild things: the world of paper mache, piñatas, and photography-from-the-wild! Smokin' hot fun! Friday, we roast our prey at the bug-feast!	June 14-18	3-8	$85/30
"A Peep into Pandora's Box": Curiosity-Inspired Art Exploration Matisse, please! A scissor-happy, multi-color experimentation with media--sure to change the way they look at art—and an introduction to the finer points of Pointillism, too...Pandora would be pleased as punch to attend this camp and its sequel in July! A must for artistic exploration--but "doable". Picnic lunch Art Showing on Friday, to include adoring parents.	June 21-25	3-8	$85/30
"Not a Stick/Not a Box—Then What?" Refining Imagination 101 Challenging the way we look at things...manipulating lines to produce schwoopies, shapes, and—whatever the pencil-to-paint process defines! Imagine, think, create: focus is on practicing the elements necessary to produce art—and we will! Friday is box-costume day.	June 28-July 2	3-8	$85/30
"Survival Camp: Crickets, Croakers and Creativity" (Answer to, "I'm Bored, Mom!") Wander the wilderness of the imagination as we discover ways to entertain without technology! (Can we survive without "technologizing" our lives and losing the imagination altogether? Find out how!) We'll explore the wonders of nature in art and art in nature. Rugged fun—brings us back to our senses. Ant-picnic and S'mores on Friday!	July 7-9	3-8	$55/25
"Pigcasso Arts: Olivia Learns to Paint" (Oh, No!) Turn Olivia loose with a knowledge of abstracts, and what will emerge? Pig-casso Arts! Explore just how many ways your child can find to paint masterpieces before the camp is over. Half-crazed fun hanging with Olivia, whose wits are hard to match! FUN-camp, with Olivia-worthy art showing on the last day!	July 12-16	3-8	$85/30

Come on out, all you bookworms and budding artists, this is Book-Week! Bring your fav Carle book on Monday and picnic with a parent at your book signing on Friday!

“Best-for-Last Week: One More Peek into Pandora’s Box”!
July 26-30 3-8 $85/30

Monet, Manet & Play: art that is meant to live with us all of our lives will be introduced and made approachable to each child as they playfully reproduce the pictures they have come to love!
